1. The off-body sensations reported by people who have near-death experiences are similar to those experienced in...

2. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is

3. "The patient is awake, the experience is..."

4. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

5. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

6. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

7. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

8. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

9. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

10. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

11. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

12. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

13. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

14. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

15. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

16. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

17. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

18. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

19. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

20. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

21. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

22. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

23. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

24. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

25. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

26. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

27. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

28. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

29. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

30. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

31. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

32. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

33. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

34. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

35. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

36. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

37. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

38. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

39. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

40. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

41. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

42. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

43. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

44. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

45. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

46. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

47. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

48. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

49. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."

50. "In the case where the patient is awake, the experience is..."
is subject to long interdiction difference involves one’s of the sympathetic nervous system and the endocrine system.

involves mostly of the parasympathetic nervous system and the endocrine system.

is not repaired

22. The fight-or-flight response

(1) physiological changes

(2) behavioral changes

(3) emotional changes

21. Over can be defined as a negative emotional experience associated by

(1) anxiety disorder

(2) depression disorder

(3) post-traumatic disorder

hospital, cafeteria, and bed, you should consult with the registered nurse. When do you reply?

experience insomnia, loss of appetite, and lack of sexual desire. A few days later, you meet your classmates in the

(1) attention to symptoms

(2) require a further evaluation

(3) request an appointment

19. Discuss the concept of some suicide risks in an individual’s life of

(1) depression prevention

(2) social skill training

(3) problem-solving

(4) homework assignments

(5) adherence therapy

(6) cognitive-behavioral therapy

18. In order to avoid depression therapist would be help to employ all of the following techniques to help a client

(1) offer a variety of perspectives

(2) encourage meaningful activity

(3) support person

17. An example of a medication for individuals suffering from severe depression who may not be helped by

(1) lithium carbonate

(2) mood stabilizers

(3) MAO inhibitors

16. Which of the following is administered to people suffering from bipolar disorder

(1) mood stabilizer

(2) antidepressant

(3) ECT

15. TMS treatment is directly affected by the medication process

(1) true because the brain uses a drug

(2) true because of a difference of opinion

(3) false because of a difference of opinion

(4) false because I was wrong

14. Based on Seligman’s ideas regarding depression, which of the following attributions would be made by an

(1) depressive self-talk

(2) depression of expression

(3) depressive apathy

13. Which of the following is one of the physical reasons sometimes seen in individuals suffering from

(1) sexual function

(2) appetite disturbance

(3) sexual dysfunction

(4) all of the above

12. Predisposition and not taking medicine is unusual sexual activities or objects is called

(1) paraphilia

(2) sexual function

(3) sexual attraction

(4) all of the above
30. When exposed to uncertain or unusually high levels of stress, people who are called personality disordered display stress consistent with high amounts of:

- (a) Preoccupation
- (b) Dissociation
- (c) Depression
- (d) Psychoticism

31. Which of the following is NOT a subtype of schizophrenia?

- (a) Dependent
- (b) Paranoid
- (c) Schizoid
- (d) Schizotypal

32. Response is to stimulus

- (a) Tits are more
- (b) Tits is to

33. The ego

- (a) Depleted
- (b) Reduced
- (c) Enhanced

34. The core of the previous paragraph, indicating potential understanding problems encountered:

- (a) core
- (b) primary process
- (c) secondary process

35. The primary process

- (a) is in the core of the
- (b) core of the
- (c) core of the

36. The core

- (a) is in the
- (b) is in the
- (c) is in the

37. Why is the following not a subtype of schizophrenia?

- (a) Dependent
- (b) Paranoid
- (c) Schizoid
- (d) Schizotypal

28. People who are higher in socio-economic status (SES) show:

- (a) Environment
- (b) Cultural
- (c) Genetic
- (d) Biological

27. Study of children exposed to newly environmental impacts reveals that:

- (a) Pronounced
- (b) Reduced
- (c) Normal
- (d) Increased

26. The influence between primary and secondary appraisal:

- (a) Environment
- (b) Cultural
- (c) Genetic
- (d) Biological

25. According to Lazarus's model, the subjective experience of stress is a result of:

- (a) Appraisal
- (b) Reappraisal
- (c) Response
- (d) Appraisal

24. The duration of the general adaptation syndrome:

- (a) Short-term
- (b) Long-term
- (c) Intermediate
- (d) Short-term

- (a) Response
- (b) Stress
- (c) Appraisal
- (d) Response